Appalachian Trail Museum Grand Opening

06/05/2010

The Appalachian Trail Museum Society will hold it's Grand Opening Saturday June 5th, 2010, at the Old Mill in Pine Grove Furnace State Park. The Main Ceremony will begin at 11:00 am. We are expecting Pioneer thru-hiker Gene Espy to be in attendance in addition to Grandma Gatewood's daughter, and hopefully other pioneer thru-hikers as well. Although many activities are still being coordinated, some of the activities are listed on the A.T. Museum Society's web site.
