A 200-year-old mill is now home to the Appalachian Trail Museum.

The Appalachian Trail has a museum. Housed in a 200-year-old grist mill at Pine Grove Furnace State Park near Carlisle, Pa., its grand opening is Saturday, National Trails Day.

Highlights at the museum (atmuseum.org) will be veteran hikers telling trail tales, historic hiking artifacts, hikers' photos and more. The museum is due to open daily in summer from noon to 4 p.m.
